This transition topics workshop will create a welcoming environment for family members, individuals with disabilities and other interested participants. In this model, we will have approximately 7 room discussions to address transition related topics. Each room will accommodate a small group of approximately 25 people. This small room format allows for discussion and opportunities to ask questions. Local transition experts have agreed to participate as topic facilitators. Each workshop participant will have an opportunity to participate in (4) 25-minute discussions. This format allows people to move between rooms to topics of interest to them. Discussions will feature best practices and up-to-date information in the field of transition planning, post-secondary education, independent living and employment.

This workshop is a repeat of the 3-28-19 event. Participants from that event are encouraged to come and attend room discussions they were not able to attend and/or repeat workshops. Additionally, new participants are invited.
