Direct Services & Supports

Regional Center of Orange County - Regional Center of Orange County is one of 21 private, nonprofit organizations contracted by the State of California to coordinate lifelong services and supports for individuals with developmental disabilities and their families. The regional center is the first stop for those seeking to obtain local services and supports to help them live safely and with dignity in the community. www.rcocdd.com
1525 North Tustin Avenue Santa Ana, CA 92705 Phone: (714) 796-5100

Dayle McIntosh Center - The mission of the Dayle McIntosh Center is to advance the empowerment, equality, integration and full participation of people with disabilities in the community. They offer many services, including: independent living skills, assistive technology services, peer support, housing resources, and vocational services. www.daylemc.org
501 N. Brookhurst Street, #102, Anaheim, Ca 92801 Phone: (714) 621-3300

Department of Rehabilitation - The Department of Rehabilitation works in partnership with consumers and other stakeholders to provide services and advocacy resulting in employment, independent living and equality for individuals with disabilities. Vocational Rehabilitation services are designed to get Californians with disabilities prepared for employment and can include training, education, transportation and job placement.

Financial & Transportation Needs

Social Security Administration (SSA) - SSA administers benefits for persons with disabilities:

- (1) The Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program pays benefits to disabled adults and children who have limited income and resources.
- (2) Child's Benefits - An adult disabled before age 22 may be eligible for child's benefits if a parent is deceased or starts receiving retirement or disability benefits. This is considered a "child's" benefit because it is paid on a parent's Social Security earnings record.
- (3) The Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) program pays benefits to individuals who are (A) age 18 or older; (B) have worked and paid Social Security taxes long enough to qualify; (C) and have a medical condition that has prevented them from working or is expected to prevent you from working for at least 12 months or end in death. www.ssa.gov Phone: (800) 772-1213

Orange County Transportation Authority (OCTA) Access Services - ACCESS is OCTA's shared-ride service for people who are unable to use the regular, fixed-route bus service because of functional limitations caused by a disability. People are eligible for OCTA ACCESS service if they are unable to board or exit a fixed-route bus, get to or from a bus stop due to physical and/or environmental barriers, or do not understand how to ride the bus.
